

2019 Autism Spectrum and Developmental Disabilities (ASDD) Pre-Conference

ASDD Special Interest Group – Association for Behavioral and Cognitive Therapies

Thursday, November 21st

Marcus Autism Center, Bellsouth Room (2nd floor)

1920 Briarcliff Rd NE, Atlanta, GA 30329

1:00-1:20	Welcome from the ASDD SIG and Marcus Autism Center Karen Bearss, ASDD SIG Co-Leader Brenna Maddox, ASDD SIG Co-Leader Ami Klin, Director of Marcus Autism Center
1:20-1:50	Atypical Social Communication Leads to Positive First Impressions Among Peers with Autism Spectrum Disorder Jessica Granieri, Stony Brook University
1:50-2:40	Overview of Marcus Autism Center Programs and Services Diagnostics - Laura Dilly Early Intervention - Michael Siller Research - Warren Jones Severe Behavior - Joanna Lomas Mevers Feeding - Will Sharp
2:40-3:00	Tour of Marcus Autism Center (with one of the above 5 options)
3:00-3:15	Break
3:15-4:15	Keynote Address: It Takes a Village, Patience, Flexibility and Luck: The Evolution of the Facing Your Fears Program Judy Reaven, University of Colorado, JFK Partners
4:15-4:45	Lightning Round Brenna Maddox, University of Pennsylvania
4:45-5:00	Breakout Group Introductions Hannah Morton, Binghamton University
5:00-5:30	Breakout Groups (Stay tuned for more info)
6:00-?	SIG Happy Hour at The Painted Pin (https://www.thepaintedpin.com/)

Please note:

- Please RSVP by clicking here! Seating is limited.

- This event is FREE for students (undergrad through postdoc) and $25 for professionals (cash or Venmo, payable at the event).
- Lightning round details - anyone who would like to participate will stand and share the following info in 30 seconds or less:
 - Who are you?
 - Where do you work?
 - What do you do?
 - Research interests/approaches
 - Clinical focus
 - Teaching/supervision
 - One quick “plug”
 - Interesting project on the horizon
 - Open training/faculty position
 - Upcoming event, publication, or anything else